

Questions to Ask Yourself Before Homeschooling

Before you homeschool you should ask yourself a few questions. These questions can help you get through your first year of homeschooling like a pro! These questions go along with this post on Joy in the Journey. Answer on a separate sheet of paper if you need more space.

1. What is your why?
2. What do you expect from homeschooling?
3. Big goals for your first year
4. Smaller goals for your first year
5. Do you have support?
6. Name three people you can count on to support you while homeschooling. If you don't have physical people near you, list an online group.
7. How long do I plan on homeschooling? Remember it takes at least a good year or two to get a good handle on homeschooling.
8. Are you ready for a challenge?
9. List a few challenges you feel you may face homeschooling
10. How will you overcome those challenges?
